CARERS

The full Council Tax bill assumes that there are 2 adults residing in a dwelling. However for Council Tax purposes certain people will not be counted when looking at the number of adults. The effect of disregarding certain adults may be to reduce the Council Tax bill by 25% or 100%.

EXAMPLE 4 adults residing in a property

one person in disregarded category	100% charge as there are still more than 2 adults to be counted.
two persons in disregarded category	100% charge as there are still 2 adults to be counted.
three persons in disregarded category	75% charge as only one adult is to be counted.
four persons in disregarded category	50% charge as there are no adults to be counted.

Below are answers to some questions about who should be disregarded under this category, for the purpose of assessing Council Tax discount.

Q. Do the persons(s) providing care and the person receiving care both have to be resident in the same property ?

A. Yes. In order to be disregarded the carer must be resident in the same dwelling as the person to whom he/she is providing care.

Q. Why do the disabled person's benefits have to be given?

A. The disabled person must be entitled to one of the four benefits shown if the carer is to be disregarded.

Q. Why does the relationship between carer and disabled person matter?

A. The carer cannot be disregarded if he/she is the spouse/partner of the disabled person or their parent (if under 18 years old).

Q. Why do the hours spent providing care have to be declared?

A. Because a carer can only be disregarded if he/she spends, on average, at least 35 hours per week providing care.

Q. How do I apply?

A. Complete the form overleaf and return it, without delay, to the address shown. Once it has been assessed you will be notified of the Council's decision.

Q. For how long will the discount be allowed?

A. For as long as there are less than two adults in the property who is not disregarded. If there is a change in circumstances then you must notify the address overleaf Failure to do so may result in a penalty being imposed.

Data Protection Act 1984

The information you provide on this form will be used to determine if you are eligible for a discount from your Council Tax, and may be recorded on a computer. Although you are not obliged to give this information, the Council will be unable to assess your eligibility for a discount unless you do so.
