Barnardo's

Barnardo's Advocacy Service Haringey

Haringey advocacy service is for:

- Children in Care
- Care Leavers
- Children in Need

Advocacy means helping you to express your views and making sure that these views are taken seriously.

We are a confidential service, our workers will not tell others anything you have said without your permission, unless we are worried about your safety or the safety of someone else.

We are independent from Social Services.

If you want to speak to us call, email and if you want to we can meet you at our office in Walthamstow or somewhere that is accessible for you.
