Haringey Council

Want to move?

Are you living in temporary accommodation provided by Haringey Council and looking for a change?

Have you waited many years for a permanent council home?

Is your property overcrowded?

Would you like to move to a different area?

Read on for the answer to your housing needs.

You may want to move to have a better quality of life for your family, be closer to your child's school, or simply to make a fresh start in a different part of the country.

Whatever your reason for wanting to move, Haringey's Private Sector Lettings Team has a wide range of privately rented properties across the country and is waiting for your call.

Did you know?

- Over 700 households have already chosen to move into a privately rented home.
- We will help you with your benefit claim and support you with your move.
- People who have moved into a privately rented home tell us their quality of life has been significantly improved.
- We have a number of 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 bedroom properties available across the country.

How can we help you?

We work with a variety of landlords to ensure that you have a wide choice of properties.

We inspect all properties to ensure they are of a high standard, with safety checks carried out before you move in.

Once you tell us you like a property we can arrange a viewing - often on the same day.

Haringey Council offer two options to help you move on.

Option 1: We find a property for you

- We will find a privately rented property for you in Haringey or a neighbouring borough.
- We will match the property as closely as possible to your requirements.
- We will talk to the landlord for you.
- We will help you with fast-tracking your housing benefit application if the property is in Haringey.

Option 2: You find your own property

- You can find your own privately rented property in Haringey or anywhere in the country.
- We will pay the deposit to secure your chosen property.
- We will talk to the landlord for you.
- We will help you with fast-tracking your housing benefit application if the property is in Haringey.
