

How would you spend it? Have your say on the Council's Budget for 2010-11

Every year we spend almost £1 billion to deliver services that people benefit from every day. These include schools, parks, sports facilities, libraries, and a lot of things that aren't so obvious, like our domestic violence service (Hearthstone).

This is your chance to have your say and help us decide how that money should be spent. It should only take a few minutes to complete our questionnaire. The survey will close on 24 December 2009. Please start the survey on the next page
