Dear Sir/Madam,

Regarding the re-designation of the Pinkham Way Site, as a local resident: I think that this is a betrayal of our interests. It's a betrayal of the lowest order.

374/1
Re-designating this site which is of ecological interest so that you can push-through plans for building a rubbish tip there. This goes against the very principles of civil service!

I, my wife and everyone living in the shadow of this development will be putting our voices together to fight this all the way. We will be putting our money together, hiring lawyers to fight you. We will identify you and put you to shame for this disgraceful high-handed, undemocratic and under-handed behaviour.

Yours faithfully,

Erik Rochelmeyer.
