Subject: Changes to DM47 Hot food takeaways policy

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing as the Healthy Schools/STEM coordinator for Rokesly Infant school and in response to your proposed changes to the DM47 policy.

Our school has worked hard to establish an ethos of healthy eating and well being and we achieved a Healthy Schools London gold award in the summer term.

In Crouch End there are several fast food establishments. One of these, Dixy Chicken, is less than 400 metres from our school gates. We believe that while the wider school community is encouraging children to adopt more healthy lifestyles, it would be irresponsible to remove the 400 metre exclusion zone from the local plan.

Yours sincerely,

Yael Glanvill
